Motivate Yourself

My original first speech, Motivate Yourself, is designed to explain to students the importance of making their own CHOICES in life. Emphasis is placed on realizing that this is the individual students' life and nobody else can live it but them. You must...

“Motivate Yourself”

Interactive segments emphasize how important it is for the students to PUSH and DRIVE themselves to do whatever it is that they want to do. I fully understand that once I have left the stage it is up to the student to motivate themselves and I strive to install that desire and passion in every student!
