

To whom it may concern,

My name is Sam Leung and I am writing on behalf of the University of Waterloo Federation Orientation Committee 2005. David Major was our Keynote Speaker at our annual Orientation Leadership Conference. David was first brought to our attention several years ago when he approached us requesting an opportunity to speak to our leaders at a motivational event. We were finally fortunate enough to have him speak for us this year.

David is a highly energetic and a very enthusiastic person both as a public speaker and as an individual. On stage, he is engaging and exciting. He truly believes in his message that the youth of today can accomplish great things. Although the message is quite deep, he manages to convey it in an entertaining, relevant and motivating manner to the youth of today. He is able to do this because he has a strong pulse on the trends and feelings of today's young adults. His speeches captivate his audience from his first words.

David is a professional and capable Motivational Speaker. I would definitely recommend him to you to speak at your event.

Sincerely,

Sam Leung
